

Organ Committee Consultant

Tom Sheehan

Tom Sheehan is Cathedral Organist and Associate Director of Music at the Washington National Cathedral. Prior to joining the Cathedral music staff in 2019, Tom was Associate University Organist and Choirmaster at Memorial Church, Harvard University. He previously served at Saint Mark's Church, Locust Street, Philadelphia, Trinity Church, Princeton, and the Episcopal Church at Princeton University. A graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and Westminster Choir College, Tom is currently finishing his Ph.D. at Boston University. In addition to St Margaret's Church, he is also consulting on a multi-million dollar organ project in California.

